EX-CONFEDERATE VETERANS

Reunion Program July 21, 22, 23, Held at Ada.

MORNING.

Veterans met at trains by reception committees and band. All were escorted to the reunion grounds, where they were registered and assigned homes. Dinner served to guests on reunion grounds.

At 1:30 o'clock the reunion was formally opened under the big tent following inspiring music by the band.

The Rev. T. B. Harrell offered a strong and appropriate invocation, after which, in behalf of the mayor of Ada, Hon. G. A. Harrison, Judge J. W. Bolen, was escorted forward and delivered an address of welcome.

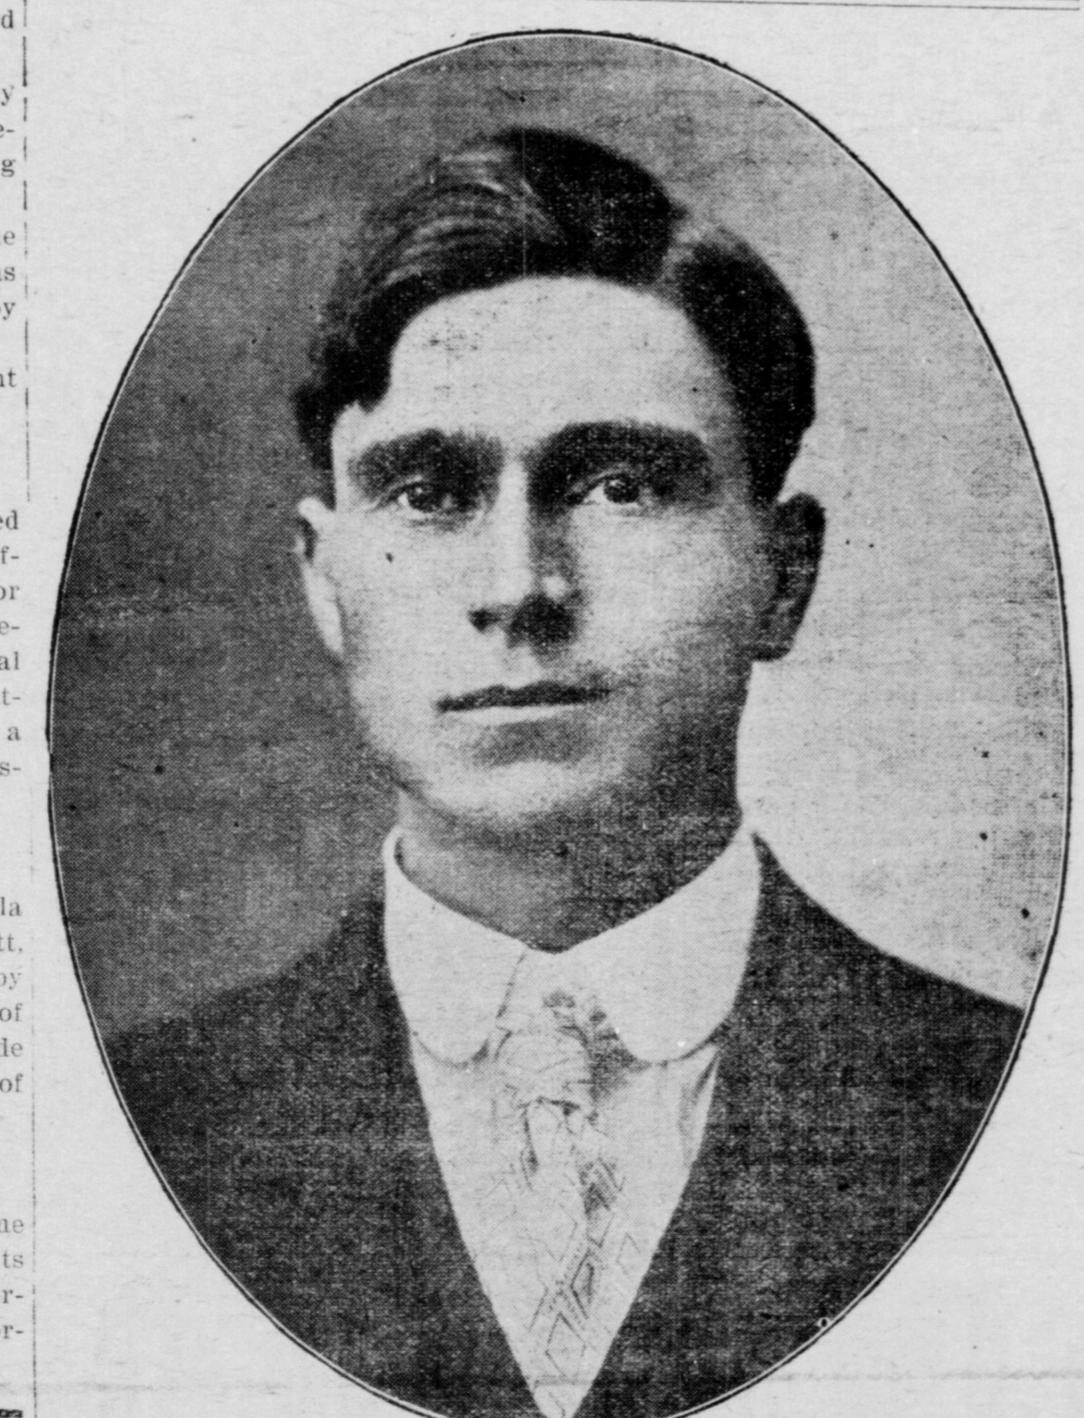

When Judge Bolen had concluded, Sam Hargis, the commander of the Chickasaw Brigade, responded in a lengthy address.

At the hour of 3:30 o'clock, Hon. Tom D. McKeown was presented to the large audience and delivered a great address, on the subject, "The Principles of the Confederacy Still Lives."

Evening Session, 8 O'clock.

Addresses and war time reminiscences by the veterans. Nine o'clock address on the past present and future of the south by Hon. Brant Kirk, commander of the U. C. V., of Oklahoma.

Music interspersions at the intervals.

The HON. FRANK HUDDLESTON, Pontotoc's able and patriotic State Representative, who, as a leading member of the farmers' caucus, and the committee on revenue and taxation, rendered incalculable service to the farmers and individual property owners of the state through the enactment into law of the income tax, the inheritance tax, the graduated land tax, and the gross receipt tax.

THE REUNION IN FULL SWAY

The Confederate Reunion of the Chickasaw Brigade is now an actual fact. For the second time is Ada the recipient of the honor of entertaining this big veterans organization.

The visiting veterans and sympathizers state that they are already taking on the maximum reunion enjoyment. There are probably a thousand in the city which, together with Ada's several thousand interested attendants and spectators affords a pretty good start for the first day of the reunion.

Tomorrow they will be here in large numbers for Wednesday will be the gala day. The day when southern sentiment will glow and find respondent fires under the influence of the oratory, the presence of the brave old veterans and the spell of the sweet administration of the ladies.

Reunion Success.

Captain Fisher, chairman of the general reunion committee, Captain Roddie of the program committee and Captains Crow and Morgan and Governor Byrd, the modest adjutant, are large factors in making the reunion a success.

Miss Alpha Sledge has been appointed sponsor, Misses Fannie J. Allen and Annie May Sims, maids of honor, for the Jeff Davis Sons and Daughters of U. C. V.

OUR BATTLE-SCARRED GUESTS.

Ada feels honored in having as guests today some of the survivors of that great civil conflict which rent this country in twain nearly a half century ago.

Then their step was quick and lively and form erect and eyes bright.

Today they move slowly, many bowed with age and care and their eyes dimmed by the glare of the sun's rays or studious application to the respective work in which they have been since engaged.

But note the change when the clarion notes of some old familiar war tune is heard—and especially "Dixie." You will see the forms of these aged veterans straighten, their steps quicken and their eyes dance with delight.

Time has healed the scars of that unfortunate struggle between a nation's family, and today the survivors of the blue and the gray each meet to commemorate the deeds of valor and sacrifice that were so tragic that the world stood aghast and with admiration, while the brave forces waged war for supremacy.

The bivouac of the field of carnage has been succeeded by the camp amid peaceful surroundings where the survivors of the blue and the gray meet in brotherly love and friendly greeting, each recognizing the honesty, sincerity and patriotism of the other in that baptism of a nation in blood which brought it forth redeemed, united and glorified.

As the years pass rapidly the already thinned ranks of these beloved veterans grows thinner, but they meet the invincible few with that same undaunted spirit that they met him amid shot and shell and the cannon's roar on the battlefield.

Those of the gray lost in one sense, but in another their's was a victory. They have left a rich heritage of valor, patriotism and love home and fireside, that will be jealously cherished by coming generations of one common people of one common country with one common cause.

We trust that the short stay of these ex-Confederate Veterans in Ada will be pleasant, comfortable and full of good cheer, which it will be. The city is theirs and the citizens and their possessions at their command. There is not anything too good for these honored guests.

Thrice welcome, and may we see you again in many more such reunions, but should the roll call find you missing we will know that it is because you have gone to reap the reward of the faithful to family, home, country and to the God of the universe.

REAL AND IMAGINARY.

The Guthrie Leader, evidently not well informed as to the real seriousness of the recent threatened outbreak of the Snake Indians, calls the newspaper stories of the affair "fake dope," and says the story did the state of Oklahoma $20,000,000 injury.

The imaginary damage is not so serious as the real loss to the state from the state printing graft.—Oklahoman.

It could not have been better stated than it is by the Oklahoman.

All citizens of Ada who possibly can, should visit the encampment of the ex-Confederate Veterans. Go there and shake their hand and express your pleasure at having them as our guests.

The seasonable rain that came Saturday night and Sunday did great benefit to crops, and it also laid the dust, so as to make the surroundings more pleasant for reunion.

Every business house in Ada ought to be decorated in honor of our distinguished guests. It is due them and also incumbent on a live, progressive city as is Ada.

The Ada band in uniform make a striking appearance and it is not all show, for the boys furnish most excellent music. Ada is proud of its band.

Civilians, speakers and visitors not of the reunion, are extended a cordial welcome to Ada, and we trust their stay will be an enjoyable one.

PRESS COMMENT.

The Oklahoma Jim Crow law seems to have raised a new question. Where is a sheriff taking a negro prisoner to the penitentiary going to ride? Assistant Attorney General Spillman seems to think the sheriff and his prisoner can ride in the car with the white people.

And now an inventor steps into the limelight with a gun that is both noiseless and powerless and a capacity of firing 30,000 shots a minute. He says two men armed with those guns and plenty of ammunition could lick an army of 100,000. Before they are on the market, a law should be passed forbidding Captain Congressman Hobson becoming the owner of one of them.—Shawness Herald.

Why is it that if a newspaper has something to say of a man nobody thinks it of enough consequence to call his attention to it, but if something that is disagreeable of him is said, nearly every other person almost breaks his neck to be the first one to ask the man if he had seen what the paper had said about him? Again, why is it that a person who is favored through the columns of the paper will go right along taking these things as a matter of course and never expressing by word or deed his appreciation of it, but the very first time there is anything in the paper that ruffles his feelings he gets cross and vindictive about it and wants to make trouble for the paper?—Hamilton (Texas) Rustler.

OKLAHOMA STATUTES IN WAY.

Premature Conveyances Illegal and a Misdemeanor.

Muskogee, Okla., July 20.—The man who bought land from an Indian and paid him part of the money, agreeing to take another deed when the Indian could make good title, has bumped up against a brand new proposition in Eastern Oklahoma. The government agents here bringing suits to clear title have found in the Oklahoma statutes the following section:

"Every person who takes any conveyance of land or tenements, or of any interest of estate therein, from any person not being in possession thereof, while such lands or tenements are subject of controversy, requires a constitutional treatment

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment

DISPENSARY STATEMENT.

Light Sales and Expenses Large

the Result.

Guthrie, Okla., July 20.—A report made by Superintendent Lozier of the state agency shows that $12,308.08 worth of liquor have been consigned to the local agencies so far, and that the commission paid to local agents on the 10 per cent basis have amounted to only $344.07. The total sales since April, when the dispensaries were first opened, amount to but $4,811.88.

The report shows that $190.08 had been paid out as expenses of confiscation and $450 in enforcement expenses. At the beginning of the month the state agency had on hand 2,233 gallons of whiskey and 951 gallons of alcohol. The report does not include about $3,000 worth of confiscated beer.

J. HARVEY LYNCH DISAPPEARS.

Left Wife and Children Without Means for Sustenance.

Oklahoma City, July 20.—Friends are making diligent inquiry as to the whereabouts of J. Harvey Lynch, former secretary of the State Federation of Labor and for the last ten months a resident of Oklahoma City. Lynch left his home at 1007 West Seventh street three weeks ago and has not been heard from directly by former friends here.

According to neighbors who claim to be in a position to know, Lynch left his wife and two children, Jane and Curran, seven and eight years, old respectively, without funds. Mrs. Lynch and the children left Saturday through the financial assistance of friends, for Sherman, Texas, where Jane and Curran will make their home with a sister of the mother, while she seeks employment.

Mrs. Lynch is said to have stated before she left, that her husband had left her entirely destitute as the furniture in the home had been mortgaged. It is stated that Mrs. Lynch claimed to have received a letter from him, but failed to mention where the letter was dated and did not make known the contents.

$100 REWARD $100.

WEST RETURNS TO GUTHRIE.

Thinks He Has Right to Bring Suits Without Interference.

Guthrie, Okla., July 20.—Attorney General West who returned Saturday from investigating conditions in the oil district is still standing pat. "I believe that I convinced one-third of the people over there that I was right and sentiment is changing rapidly in my favor. When I went over there nearly everyone was against me."

West would not discuss the appointment of James Kirkwood by the governor as his special agent to investigate the pipe line further than to say that the governor had a right to take such action if he saw fit. The attorney general believes that the governor is not the sole head of the executive department and that the attorney general is responsible only to the people who elected him.

Alleged Thief Killed.

Muskogee, Okla., July 20.—G. W. Stork, a dairyman, shot and killed George Hendricks early this morning while the latter was trying to break into the Stork home. Hendricks had stolen a set of harness at another place before he reached Stork's.

Weak Kidneys surely point to weak Kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, of and of money as well.

KILLED WIFE AND PARAMOUR

El Reno, Okla., July 20.—James Leusby, whose right name is believed to be Charles McClain, shot and killed his wife and W. T. Woods in Leusby's home in this city yesterday morning. Leusby is a barber and for some months past has been working in Claremore, Okla., making weekly trips home, usually on Sunday, to visit Mrs. Leusby. Leusby, or McClain, married Rosa Vain in Kansas City six years ago. They came here to live and he left his wife several months ago, going to Claremore. Saturday night Leusby came to El Reno as usual but did not go home. He stayed at the house of a friend and Sunday morning about 6 o'clock went to his home where through the window he saw his wife and Woods.

Leusby was armed with a revolver and when he was prevented from effecting entrance to the room in which were his wife and Woods he fired through the door. The first shot struck Woods and he fell to the floor. Leusby then forced the door and fired two shots into Woods' body. In the meantime Mrs. Leusby had escaped. Leusby then started away, but, seeing his wife returning, waited until she had entered the house, then stepped to the door and shot her. The ball penetrated her heart, killing her instantly.

Woods was dead when neighbors, attracted by the shots, ran to the house. Leusby walked down town and gave himself up to the officers. He was not in the least excited and calmly told of the whole affair, declaring the "unwritten law" would acquit him of the deed. It seems that Leusby had known of the intimacy between his wife and Woods for several months and it is said had repeatedly cautioned his wife about associating with Woods. He also said that he told Woods that if ever he caught him in his house he would kill him.

Saturday night he went to Sheriff Chambers and wanted the latter to go to his house and arrest Mrs. Leusby and Woods if found there. The officer is said to have put him off. It is reported that Leusby told the officer that if he waited until Sunday he could take the coroner with him.

Rose Vain met McCain at Herrington. A portion of her family lives here while others live in Topeka, Kan.

Leusby, or McLain, is about 35 years of age and was Mrs. Leusby's second husband. They had no children. Woods was about 25 and unmarried. He was employed in a grocery store. Leusby is in jail.

OIL SITUATION DEPLORABLE.

J. A. Kirkwood, the Special Agent of Governor, So Reports.

Tulsa, Okla., July 20.—General J. A. Kirkwood, special agent appointed by Governor Haskell to investigate conditions in the Oklahoma oil fields, has completed his work and will at once lay an extensive report before the governor. General Kirkwood stated that he found conditions as represented by the oil men. He said the oil industry is in a deplorable condition.

He is convinced that additional pipelines are absolutely necessary for the prosperity of the oil field and says people outside the oil belt have no conception of the true condition of affairs here.

SPENT MOST IN VESTIGATING.

Return Balance to the State—Cyclone Sufferers Get Nothing.

Guthrie, Okla., July 20.—During the storm period last spring the legislature appropriated $10,000 for the relief of cyclone sufferers in Dewey, Ellis, Alfalfa, Majors, Woodward and Stephens Counties, and gave the distribution of the money to the board of agriculture. President Conners announced today that the board would pay out none of the money, but would return it to the state.

President Conners said today: "Crop conditions are better in five of those counties than in the Choctaw, Chickasaw or Creek nations. Half the counties suffered damage from floods, wind and hail since the appropriation was made, and it would be an injustice to compel citizens of those counties to reimburse the state treasury for this appropriation."

About $6,300 of the fund was spent in making investigations.

MAN FOUND DEAD NEAR ADA

Body In Bad Condition Indicating Death Several Days Ago.

On Monday, about the noon hour, J. D. Moore discovered a dead man in a vacant house joining the Frisco right of way near Oakman, Justice of the Peace Hammond was notified and a jury was summoned which returned a verdict that deceased had met death in a manner unknown.

The dead man appeared to have been about 60 years of age, six feet tall, gray hair and moustache and possessed a perfect set of teeth except the absence of one lower tooth. By his side was a universal water bottle, a tin cup and a box of morphine tablets.

On July 9th, this same man came to the home of F. A. Haleman, who lives at Oakman, where he spent the night. He gave his name and said his home was in Missouri and that he was in this country prospecting. Mr. Haleman cannot remember his name, but says he was very deaf.

O. C. Johnston, who lives at Oakman, and who was in Ada today making inquiry concerning the man, says that he had seen this man on the streets at Ada and had talked to him. He also saw him on the afternoon of the ninth. There was nothing about his person which would lead toward his identity. He possessed a silverine watch, and wore first-class clothes. One of the little girls at the Haleman house says he displayed a large money purse when he paid for his lodging, but there was no trace of such on or about his remains. He remarked during his stay at Haleman's that the native water did not agree with him and on that account he was compelled to drink mineral water. The people of Oakman and vicinity gave him a respectable burial.

The Way of the Rothschilds.

A New Orleans man said the other day of the great house of the Rothschilds:

"The Rothschilds push their strictness to the point of eccentricity. They once had for agent here in New Orleans a fine fellow. They telegraphed to this agent at a certain season to sell their cotton holdings, but he knew the price would go higher, and therefore he didn't sell until four days later. In consequence he netted an extra profit of $40,000 for his firm.

"When he sent the Rothschilds the money and told them joyously what he had done they returned the whole amount, with a cold note that said:

"The $40,000 you made by disobeying our instructions is not ours, but yours. Take it, Mr. Blank, your successor, sails for New Orleans today."—New Orleans Picayune.

ANTS CAUSE CHILD'S DEATH.

Mother Left it to Hunt a Cow and Found it in Nest on Her Return.

Anadarko, Okla., July 20.—Red ants crawling into the eyes, ears, nose and mouth of the little three-year-old daughter of Tonie, a Kiowa Indian living near here inflicted wounds from which the child died later.

The child's mother had gone to drive up the cow and left her alone. She crawled into the nest, and the ants attacked her. She was attacked by convulsions later in the night and died.

ADVERTISING TAKI.

Newspaper advertising is to business what hands are to a clock. It is a direct and certain means of letting the public know what you are doing. In these days of intense and vigilant commercial contest a dealer who does not advertise is like a clock that has no hands. He has no way of telling folks what he's got. He can no more expect a twentieth century success with nineteenth century methods than he can wear the same sized shoes a man which fitted in his boyhood.

His father and mother were content with neighborhood shops and bobtail cars. They were the best to be had in their day. They were accustomed to seek the merchant instead of being sought by him. They dealt "around the corner" in one story shops which depended upon the immediate friends of the dealer for support. As long as the city was made up of such neighborhood units, each with a full outfit of butchers, bakers, clothiers, jewelers, furniture dealers and shoemakers it was possible for the proprietors of these little establishments to exist and make a profit.

But as population increased, transit facilities spread, sections became specialized, block after block was entirely devoted to stores, and mile after mile became solely occupied by homes.

The purchaser and the storekeeper grew farther and apart. It was necessary for the merchant to find a substitute for his direct personality which no longer served to draw customers to his door. He had to stretch a bond between the commercial center and the home center. Rapid transit eliminated distance, but advertising was necessary to inform people where he was located and what he had to sell. It was natural outgrowth of changed conditions—the beginning of a new era in trade which no longer relied upon personal acquaintance for success.

The newspaper publisher, hitherto a gossip, a retailer of information, became a first aid to commercial advancement. The shopkeeper, hitherto a petty tradesman, began to grow into the dignity of a merchant.

Something more wonderful than the fabled philosopher's stone came into being and the beginnings of fortunes which would pass the hundred million mark and place tradesmen's daughters upon oriental thrones grew from this new force. Within fifty years it has become as vital to industry as steam to commerce.

Advertising is not a luxury nor a debatable policy. It has proven its case. Its record is traced in the sky-line of the city where a hundred towering buildings stand as a lesson of reproach to the men who had the opportunity but not the foresight, and furnish a constant inspiration to the young merchant at the threshold of his career.—Exchange.

DANGAR IN DELAY.

Kidneys Diseases Are Too Dangerous to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills.

B. F. Mills, of Ardmore, Okla., tailor and dyer, residing at 509 West Main street, says: "In the month of May, 1902, I gave for publication a testimonial recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured me of pain in my back, never severe enough to cause me to lay off work, but sufficient to cause me more pain than one should endure when Doan's Kidney Pills can be easily obtained. I cannot add anything to my original statement today except that I have exerted myself in many ways, but have never had the slightest symptom of a recurrence of my old trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills cure absolutely."

THE REUNION IN FULL SWAY

The Confederate Reunion of the Chickasaw Brigade is now an actual fact. For the second time in Ada the recipient of the honor of entertaining this big veterans organization.

The visiting veterans and sympathizers state that they are already taking on the maximum reunion enjoyment. There are probably a thousand in the city which, together with Ada's several thousand interested attendants and spectators affords a pretty good start for the first day of the reunion.

Tomorrow they will be here in large numbers for Wednesday will be the gala day. The day when southern sentiment will glow and find respondent fires under the influence of the oratory, the presence of the brave old veterans and the spell of the sweet administration of the ladies.

OUR BATTLE-SCARRED GUESTS.

Ada feels honored in having as guests today some of the survivors of that great civil conflict which rent this country in twain nearly a half century ago.

Then their step was quick and lively and form erect and eyes bright.

Today they move slowly, many bowed with age and care and their eyes dimmed by the glare of the sun's rays or studious application to the respective work in which they have been since engaged.

But note the change when the clarion notes of some old familiar war tune is heard—and especially "Dixie." You will see the forms of these aged veterans straighten, their steps quicken and their eyes dance with delight.

Time has healed the scars of that unfortunate struggle between a nation's family, and today the survivors of the blue and the gray each meet to commemorate the deeds of valor and sacrifice that were so tragic that the world stood aghast and with admiration, while the brave forces waged war for supremacy.

The bivouac of the field of carnage has been succeeded by the camp amid peaceful surroundings where the survivors of the blue and the gray meet in brotherly love and friendly greeting, each recognizing the honesty, sincerity and patriotism of the other in that baptism of a nation in blood which brought it forth redeemed, united and glorified.

The Ada band in uniform make a striking appearance and it is not ready thinned ranks of these beloved veterans grows thinner, but they meet the invincible foe with that same undaunted spirit that they met him amid shot and shell and the canons roar on the battlefield.

Those of the gray lost in one sense, but in another their's was a victory. They have left a rich heritage of valor, patriotism and love, and besides, that will be jealously cherished by coming generations of one common people of one common country with one common cause.

We trust that the short stay of these ex-Confederate Veterans in Ada will be pleasant, comfortable and full of good cheer, which it will be. And now an inventor steps into the city, and his prisoner can ride in the full light with a gun that is both noiseless and powderless and a certainty for these honored guests. Three welcome, and may we see him again armed with those guns and plenty of ammunition could lick an army of 100,000. Before they are on the market, a law should be passed forbidding Captain Congressman Holson becoming the owner of one of them.—Shawnee Herald.

PRESS COMMENT.

The Oklahoma Jim Crow law seems to have raised a new question: Where is a sheriff taking a negro prisoner to the penitentiary going to ride? Assistant Attorney General Spillman seems to think the sheriff will support Mr. Bryan upon condition if elected he will prosecute the so-called wool trust.

Why is it that a newspaper has something to say of a man nobody thinks it of enough consequence to call his attention to it, but if something that is disagreeable of him is said, nearly every other person almost breaks his neck to be the first to ask the man if he had seen what the paper had said about him? Again, why is it that a person who is favored through the columns of the paper will go right along taking these things as a matter of course and never expressing by word or deed his appreciation of it, but the very first time there is anything in the paper that ruffles his feelings he gets cross and vindictive about it and wants to make trouble for the paper?—Hamilton (Texas) Rustler.

OKLAHOMA STATUTES IN WAY.

Premature Conveyances Illegal and a Misdemeanor.

Muskogee, Okla., July 20.—The man who bought land from an Indian and paid him part of the money, agreeing to take another deed when the Indian could make good title, has bumped up against a brand new proposition in Eastern Oklahoma. The government agents here bringing suits to clear title have found in the Oklahoma statutes the following section:

"Every person who takes any conveyance of land or tenements, or of any interest of estate therein, from any person not being in possession thereof, while such lands or tenements are subject of controversy, by suit in court, knowing the pendency of such suit, and that the grantor was not in possession of such land or tenements, is guilty of misdemeanor." The penalty may be one year in jail and $500 fine.

According to the position of the assistant attorney general, this Oklahoma statute precludes the consummation of a second deal on any of the Indian lands which are involved in the suits which have been filed under the guise of clearing title.

There are thousands of just such cases where a land owner has given the Indian a small sum of money, and taken a deed, knowing the deed was not good at the time, but agreeing to pay the full purchase price when the restrictions were removed and the Indian gave a deed that was good.

WOOL GROWERS FOR BRYAN.

Protection Does Them No Good With a Monopoly to Control Price.

Lincoln, Neb., July 20.—F. S. Monett of Ohio held an hour's conference with Mr. Bryan at Fairview tonight. The nominee authorized Mr. Monett to announce that if he were elected President he would use all the power of the government to destroy the wool monopoly. He told Mr. Bryan that the anged monopoly had forced down the price of wool below the free trade basis and had increased the price of the finished product over 800 per cent. The wool growers of Ohio, according to Mr.

Monett, will support Mr. Bryan upon condition if elected he will prosecute the so-called wool trust.

Muskogee's Steamboat.

Muskogee, Okla., July 20.—The steamboat "City of Muskogee" arrived here ahead of schedule Saturday, being the first boat to travel from Ft. Smith to Muskogee in 40 years.

J. HARVEY LYNCH DISAPPEARS.

Oklahoma City, July 20.—Friends are making diligent inquiry as to the whereabouts of J. Harvey Lynch, former secretary of the State Federation of Labor and for the last ten months a resident of Oklahoma City. Lynch left his home at 1007 West Seventh street three weeks ago and has not been heard from directly by former friends here.

According to neighbors who claim to be in a position to know, Lynch left his wife and two children, Louis and Curran, seven and eight years, old respectively, without funds. Mrs. Lynch and the children left Saturday through the financial assistance of friends, for Sherman, Texas, where Louis and Curran will make their home with a sister of the mother, while she seeks employment.

Mrs. Lynch is said to have stated before she left, that her husband had lost her entirely destitute as the furniture in the home had been mortgaged. It is stated that Mrs. Lynch claimed to have received a letter from him, but failed to mention where the letter was dated and did not make known the contents.

WEST RETURNS TO GUTHRIE.

Thinks He Has Right to Bring Suits Without Interference.

Guthrie, Okla., July 20.—Attorney General West who returned Saturday from investigating conditions in the oil district is still standing pat. "I believe that I convinced one-third of the people over there that I was right and sentiment is changing rapidly in my favor. When I went over there nearly everyone was against me."

West would not discuss the appointment of James Kirkwood by the governor as his special agent to investigate the pipe line further than to say that the governor had a right to take such action if he saw fit. The attorney general believes that the governor is not the sole head of the executive department and that the attorney general is responsible only to the people who elected him.

Albized Thief Killed.

Muskogee, Okla., July 20.—G. W. Stork, a dairyman, shot and killed George Hendricks early this morning while the latter was trying to break into the Stork home. Hendricks had stolen a set of harness at another place before he reached Stork's.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys surely point to weak Money Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart and Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide it, and that is why Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative's monthly Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

DR. L. M. DOSS,

Meat prostrates the nerves. In the summer one needs a tonic to offset the customary hot weather Nerve and Strength depression. You will feel better within 48 hours after beginning to take such a remedy as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Its prompt action in restoring the weakened nerves is surprising. Of course, you won't get entirely strong in a few days, but each day you can actually feel the improvement. That tired, lifeless, spiritless feeling will quickly depart when using the Restorative. Dr. Shoop's Restorative will sharpen a failing appetite; it aids digestion; it will strengthen the weakened Kidneys and Heart by simply rebuilding the worn-out nerves that these organs depend upon. Test it a few days and be convinced. Sold by G. M. Ramsey.

KILLED WIFE AND PARAMOUR

El Reno, Okla., July 20.—James Leusby, whose right name is believed to be Charles McClain, shot and killed his wife and W. T. Woods in Leusby's home in this city yesterday morning. Leusby is a barber and for some months past has been working in Claremore, Okla., making weekly trips home, usually on Sunday, to visit Mrs. Leusby. Leusby, or McClain, married Rosa Vain in Kansas City six years ago. They came here to live and he left his wife several months ago, going to Claremore. Saturday night Leusby came to El Reno as usual but did not go home. He stayed at the house of a friend and Sunday morning about 6 o'clock went to his home where through the window he saw his wife and Woods.

Leusby was armed with a revolver and when he was prevented from effecting entrance to the room in which were his wife and Woods he fired through the door. The first shot struck Woods and he fell to the floor. Leusby then forced the door and fired two shots into Woods' body. In the meantime Mrs. Leusby had escaped. Leusby then started away, but, seeing his wife returning, waited until she had entered the house, then stepped to the door and shot her. The ball penetrated her heart, killing her instantly.

Woods was dead when neighbors, attracted by the shots, ran to the house. Leusby walked down town and gave himself up to the officers. He was not in the least excited and calmly told of the whole affair, declaring the "unwritten law" would acquit him of the deed. It seems that Leusby had known of the intimacy between his wife and Woods for several months and it is said had repeatedly cautioned his wife about associating with Woods. He also said that he told Woods that if ever he caught him in his house he would kill him.

Saturday night he went to Sheriff Chambers and wanted the latter to go to his house and arrest Mrs. Leusby and Woods if found there. The officer is said to have put him off. It is reported that Leusby told the officer that if he waited until Sunday he could take the coroner with him.

Rose Vain met McCain at Herrington. A portion of her family lives here while others live in Topeka, Kan.

Leusby, or McLain, is about 35 years of age and was Mrs. Leusby's second husband. They had no children. Woods was about 25 and unmarried. He was employed in a grocery store. Leusby is in jail.

OIL SITUATION DEPLORABLE.

J. A. Kirkwood, the Special Agent of Governor, So Reports.

Tulsa, Okla., July 20.—General J. A. Kirkwood, special agent appointed by Governor Haskell to investigate conditions in the Oklahoma oil fields, has completed his work and will at once lay an extensive report before the governor. General Kirkwood stated that he found conditions as represented by the oil men. He said the oil industry is in a deplorable condition.

He is convinced that additional pipe lines are absolutely necessary for the prosperity of the oil field and says people outside the oil belt have no conception of the true condition of affairs here.

SPENT MOST IN INVESTIGATING.

Return Balance to the State—Cyclone Sufferers Get Nothing.

Guthrie, Okla., July 20.—During the storm period last spring the legislature appropriated $10,000 for the relief of cyclone sufferers in Dewey, Ellis, Alfalfa, Majors, Woodward and Stephens Counties, and gave the distribution of the money to the board of agriculture. President Conners announced today that the board would pay out none of the money, but would return it to the state.

President Conners said today: "Crop conditions are better in five of those counties than in the Choctaw, Chickasaw or Creek nations. Half the counties suffered damage from floods, wind and ball since the appropriation was made, and it would be an injustice to compel citizens of those counties to reimburse the state treasury for this appropriation."

About $6,300 of the fund was spent in making investigations.

MAN FOUND DEAD NEAR ADA

Body In Bad Condition Indicating Death Several Days Ago.

On Monday, about the noon hour, J. D. Moore discovered a dead man in a vacant house joining the Frisco right of way near Oakman, six miles northeast of Ada. Justice of the Peace Hammond was notified and a jury was summoned which returned a verdict that deceased had met death in a manner unknown.

The dead man appeared to have been about 60 years of age, six feet tall, gray hair and moustache and possessed a perfect set of teeth except the absence of one lower tooth. By his side was a universal water bottle, a tin cup and a box of morphine tablets.

On July 9th, this same man came to the home of F. A. Haleman, who lives at Oakman, where he spent the night. He gave his name and said his home was in Missouri and that he was in this country prospecting. Mr. Haleman cannot remember his name, but says he was very deaf.

O. C. Johnston, who lives at Oakman, and who was in Ada today making inquiry concerning the man, says that he had seen this man on the streets at Ada and had talked to him. He also saw him on the afternoon of the ninth. There was nothing about his person which would lead toward his identity. He possessed a silverine watch, and wore first-class clothes. One of the little girls at the Haleman house says he displayed a large money purse when he payed for his lodging, but there was no trace of such on or about his remains. He remarked during his stay at Haleman's that the native water did not agree with him and on that account he was compelled to drink mineral water. The people of Oakman and vicinity gave him a respectable burial.

The Way of the Rothschilds.

A New Orleans man said the other day of the great house of the Rothschilds: "The Rothschilds push their strictness to the point of eccentricity. They once had for agent here in New Orleans a fine fellow. They telegraphed to this agent at a certain season to sell their cotton holdings, but he knew the price would go higher, and therefore he didn't sell until four days later. In consequence he netted an extra profit of $40,000 for his firm."

"When he sent the Rothschilds the money and told them joyously what he had done they returned the whole amount, with a cold note that said

"The $40,000 you made by disobeying our instructions is not ours, but yours. Take it. Mr. Blank, your successor, waits for New Orleans to-day."—New Orleans Picayune.

ANTS CAUSE CHILD'S DEATH.

Mother Left It to Hunt a Cow and Found it in Nest on Her Return.

Anadarko, Okla., July 20.—Red ants crawling into the eyes, ears, nose and mouth of the little three-year-old daughter of Tonie, a Kiowa Indian living near here inflicted wounds from which the child died later.

The child's mother had gone to drive up the cow and left her alone. She crawled into the nest, and the ants attacked her. She was attacked by convulsions later in the night and died.

ADVERTISING TALK.

Newspaper advertising is to business what hands are to a clock. It is a direct and certain means of letting the public know what you are doing. In these days of intense and vigilant commercial contest a dealer who does not advertise is like a clock that has no hands. He has no way of telling folks what he's got. He can no more expect a twentieth century success with nineteenth century methods than he can wear the same sized shoes a man which fitted in his boyhood.

His father and mother were content with neighborhood shops and hobbail cars. They were the best to be had in their day. They were accustomed to seek the merchant instead of being sought by him. They dealt "around the corner" in one story shops which depended upon the immediate friends of the dealer for support. As long as the city was made up of such neighborhood units, each with a full outfit of butchers, bakers, clothiers, jewelers, furniture dealers and shoemakers it was possible for the proprietors of these little establishments to exist and make a profit.

But as population increased, transit facilities spread, sections became specialized, block after block was entirely devoted to stores, and mile after mile became solely occupied by homes.

The purchaser and the storekeeper grew farther and apart. It was necessary for the merchant to find a substitute for his direct personality which no longer served to draw customers to his door. He had to stretch a bond between the commercial center and the home center. Rapid transit eliminated distance, but advertising was necessary to inform people where he was located and what he had to sell. It was natural outgrowth of changed conditions—the beginning of a new era in trade which no longer relied upon personal acquaintance for success.

The newspaper publisher, hitherto a gossip, a retailer of information, became a first aid to commercial advancement. The shopkeeper, hitherto a petty tradesman, began to grow into the dignity of a merchant.

Something more wonderful than the fabled philosopher's stone came into being and the beginnings of fortunes which would pass the hundred million mark and place tradesmen's daughters upon oriental thrones grew from this new force. Within fifty years it has become as vital to industry as steam to commerce.

Advertising is not a luxury nor a debatable policy. It has proven its case. Its record is traced in the sky-line of the city where a hundred towering buildings stand as a lesson of reproach to the men who had the opportunity but not the foresight and furnish a constant inspiration to the young merchant at the threshold of his career.—Exchange.

NOTICE.

The tournament races will occur at the reunion ground Thursday afternoon. The prizes will be $5.00, $10.00 and $15.00. Some old veterans will engage in the tournament riding. These events always afford very attractive entertainment and the management of the races believe there will be a large attendance. Don't forget the date, Thursday afternoon at the reunion grounds.

DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidneys Diseases Are Too Dangerous to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills.

E. F. Mills, of Ardmore, Okla., tailor and dyer, residing at 509 West Main street, says: "In the month of May, 1902, I gave for publication a testimonial recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured me of pain in my back, never severe enough to cause me to lay off work, but sufficient to cause me more pain than one should endure when Doan's Kidney Pills can be easily obtained. I cannot add anything to my original statement today except that I have exerted myself in many ways, but have never had the slightest symptom of a recurrence of my old trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills cure absolutely."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

FIREMAN SCALDED TO DEATH

Wreck on Frisco Near Hickory—
Engine Turned Over, Cars
Demolished and Cattle Killed.

A wreck occurred on the Frisco yesterday near Hickory, in which a fireman lost his life by being scalded to death.

The engine was turned completely over and several freight boxes demolished, loaded with cattle, killing a number of them.

Where the wreck occurred, the embankment was not high, nor was the remainder of the train jarred by the derailing of the front part.

Capt. Jack Wills is our informant about the wreck.

Hon. Tom D. McKeown.

Hon. Tom D. McKeown delivered an address at the reunion this afternoon, than which none better or more appropriate have ever been delivered in this section. Tom's general popularity and splendid mental attainments makes his appearance a pleasant event at a reunion occasion.

Ladies of Honor.

Mrs. W. C. Duncan, Miss Edna

Honor, for the U. S. C. V.

Judge Bolen's address of welcome

THE REUNION IN FULL SWAY

The Confederate Reunion of the Chickasaw Brigade is now an actual fact. For the second time is Ada the recipient of the honor of entertaining this big veterans organization.

The visiting veterans and sympathizers state that they are already taking on the maximum reunion enjoyment. There are probably a thousand in the city which, together with Ada's several thousand interested attendants and spectators affords a pretty good start for the first day of the reunion.

Tomorrow they will be here in large numbers for Wednesday, southern sentiment will glow and find respondent fires under the influence of the oratory, the presence of the brave old veterans and the spell of the sweet administration of the ladies.

Reunion Success.

Captain Fisher, chairman of the general reunion committee, Captain Roddie of the program committee and Captains Crow and Morgan and Governor Byrd, the modest adjutant, are large factors in making the reunion a success.

Miss Alpha Sledge has been appointed sponsor, Misses Fannie J. Allen and Annie May Sims, maid of honor, for the Jeff Davis Sons and Daughters of U. C. V.

OUR BATTLE-SCARRED GUESTS.

Ada feels honored in having as guests today some of the survivors of that great civil conflict which rent this country in twain nearly a half century ago.

Then their step was quick and lively and form erect and eyes bright.

Today they move slowly, many bowed with age and care and their eyes dimmed by the glare of the sun's rays or studios application to the respective work in which they have been since engaged.

But note the change when the clarion notes of some old familiar war tune is heard—and especially "Dixie." You will see the forms of these aged veterans straighten, their steps quicken and their eyes dance with delight.

Time has healed the scars of that unfortunate struggle between a nation's family, and today the survivors of the blue and the gray meet to commemorate the deeds of valor and sacrifice that were so tragic that the world stood aghast and with admiration, while the brave forces waged war for supremacy.

The bivouac of the field of carnage has been succeeded by the camp amid peaceful surroundings where the survivors of the blue and the gray meet in brotherly love and friendly greeting, each recognizing the honesty, sincerity and patriotism of the other in that baptism of a nation in blood which brought it forth redeemed, united and glorified.

As the years pass rapidly the already thinned ranks of these beloved veterans grows thinner, but they meet the invincible foe with that same undaunted spirit that they met him amid shot and shell and the canons roar on the battlefield.

Those of the gray lost in one sense, but in another their's was a victory. They have left a rich heritage of valor, patriotism and love of God and freedom that will be jealously cherished by coming generations of one common people of one common country with one common cause.

We trust that the short stay of these ex-Confederate Veterans in Ada will be pleasant, comfortable and full of good cheer, which it will be. The city is theirs and the citizens are their possessions at their command. There is not anything too good for these honored guests.

They welcome, and may we see them again. He says two men armed with those guns and plenty of ammunition could lick an army of 100,000. Before they are on the market, a law should be passed forbidding Captain Congressman Hobson becoming the owner of one of them.—Shawnee Herald.

Why is it that if a newspaper has something to say of a man nobody thinks it of enough consequence to call his attention to it, but if something that is disagreeable of him is said, nearly every other person almost breaks his neck to be the first one to ask the man if he had seen what the paper had said about him? Again, why is it that a person who is favored through the columns of the paper will go right along taking these things as a matter of course and never expressing by word or deed his appreciation of it, but the very first time there is anything in the paper that ruffles his feelings he gets cross and vindictive about it and wants to make trouble for the paper?—Hamilton (Texas) Rouser.

OKLAHOMA STATUTES IN WAY.

Premature Conveyances Illegal and a Misdemeanor.

Muskogee, Okla., July 20.—The man who bought land from an Indian and paid him part of the money, agreeing to take another deed when the Indian could make good title, has bumped up against a brand new proposition in Eastern Oklahoma. The government agents here bringing suits to clear title have found in the Oklahoma statutes the following section:

"Every person who takes any conveyance of land or tenements, or of any interest of estate therein, from any person not being in possession thereof, while such lands or tenements are subject of controversy, by suit in court, knowing the tendency of such suit, and that the grantor was not in possession of such land or tenements, is guilty of misdemeanor." The penalty may be one year in jail and $500 fine.

According to the position of the assistant attorney general, this Oklahoma statute precludes the consummation of a second deal on any of the Indian lands which are involved in the suits which have been filed under the guise of clearing title.

There are thousands of just such cases where a land buyer has given the Indian a small sum of money, and taken a deed, knowing the deed was not good at the time, but agreeing to pay the full purchase price when the restrictions were removed and the Indian gave a deed that was good.

WOOL GROWERS FOR BRYAN.

Protection Does Them No Good While a Monopoly to Control Price.

Lincoln, Neb., July 20.—F. S. Monnett of Ohio held an hour's conference with Mr. Bryan at Fairview, tonight. The nominee authorized Mr. Monnett to announce that if he were elected President he would use all the power of the government to destroy the wool monopoly. He told Mr. Bryan that the sued monopoly had forced down the price of wool below the free trade basis and had increased the price of the finished product over 800 per cent. The wool growers of Ohio, according to Mr. Monnett, will support Mr. Bryan upon condition if elected he will prosecute the so-called wool trust.

Muskogee's Steamboat.

Muskogee, Okla., July 20.—The steamboat "City of Muskogee" arrived here ahead of schedule Saturday, being the first boat to travel from Ft. Smith to Muskogee in 40 years.

He says two men armed with those

J. HARVEY LYNCH DISAPPEARS.

Left Wife and Children Without Means for Sustenance.

Oklahoma City, July 20.—Friends are making diligent inquiry as to the whereabouts of J. Harvey Lynch, former secretary of the State Federation of Labor and for the last ten months a resident of Oklahoma City. Lynch left his home at 1807 West Seventh street three weeks ago and has not been heard from directly by former friends here.

According to neighbors who claim to be in a position to know, Lynch left his wife and two children, Long and Curran, seven and eight years old respectively, without funds. Mrs. Lynch and the children left Saturday through the financial assistance of friends, for Sherman, Texas, where Long and Curran will make their home with a sister of the mother, while she seeks employment.

Mrs. Lynch is said to have stated before she left, that her husband had left her entirely destitute as the furniture in the home had been mortgaged. It is stated that Mrs. Lynch claimed to have received a letter from him, but failed to mention where the letter was dated and did not make known the contents.

DISPENSARY STATEMENT.

Light Sales and Expenses Large
the Result.

Guthrie, Okla., July 20.—A report made by Superintendent Lozier of the state agency shows that $12,308.08 worth of liquor have been consigned to the local agencies so far, and that the commission paid to local agents on the 10 per cent basis have amounted to only $341.07. The total sales since April, when the dispensaries were first opened, amount to but $4,511.88.

The report shows that $190.08 had been paid out as expenses of confiscation and $450 in enforcement expenses. At the beginning of the month the state agency had on hand 2,233 gallons of whiskey and 951 gallons of alcohol. The report does not include about $3,000 worth of confiscated beer.

WEST RETURNS TO GUTHRIE.

Thinks He Has Right to Bring Suits Without Interference.

Guthrie, Okla., July 20.—Attorney General West who returned Saturday from investigating conditions in the oil district is still standing pat. "I believe that I convinced one-third of the people over there that I was right and sentiment is changing rapidly in my favor. When I went over there nearly everyone was against me."

West would not discuss the appointment of James Kirkwood by the governor as his special agent to investigate the pipe line further than to say that the governor has a right to take such action if he saw fit. The attorney general believes that the governor is not the sole head of the executive department and that the attorney general is responsible only to the people who elected him.

Albized Thief Kidnapped.

Muskogee, Okla., July 20.—G. W. Stork, a dairyman, shot and killed George Hendricks early this morning while the latter was trying to break into the Stork home. Hendricks had stolen a set of harness at another place before he reached Stork's.

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys like the heart and the lungs, when they are not in the organs itself, but in the nerves that control and regulate them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone, it is a waste of time and of money as well as your back aches or is weak. If the urine scalds or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. KILLED WIFE AND PARAMOUR

El Reno, Okla., July 20.—James Leusby, whose right name is believed to be Charles McClain, shot and killed his wife and W. T. Woods in Leusby's home in this city yesterday morning. Leusby is a barber and for some months past has been working in Claremore, Okla., making weekly trips home, usually on Sunday, to visit Mrs. Leusby. Leusby, or McClain, married Rosa Vain in Kansas City six years ago. They came here to live and he left his wife several months ago, going to Claremore. Saturday night Leusby came to El Reno as usual but did not go home. He stayed at the house of a friend and Sunday morning about 6 o'clock went to his home where through the window he saw his wife and Woods.

Leusby was armed with a revolver and when he was prevented from effecting entrance to the room in which were his wife and Woods he fired through the door. The first shot struck Woods and he fell to the floor. Leusby then forced the door and fired two shots into Woods' body. In the meantime Mrs. Leusby had escaped. Leusby then started away, but seeing his wife returning, waited until she had entered the house, then stepped to the door and shot her. The ball penetrated her heart, killing her instantly.

Woods was dead when neighbors, attracted by the shots, ran to the house. Leusby walked down town and gave himself up to the officers. He was not in the least excited and calmly told of the whole affair, declaring the "unwritten law" would acquit him of the deed. It seems that Leusby had known of the intimacy between his wife and Woods for several months and it is said had repeatedly cautioned his wife about associating with Woods. He also said that he told Woods that if ever he caught him in his house he would kill him.

Saturday night he went to Sheriff Chambers and wanted the latter to go to his house and arrest Mrs. Leusby and Woods if found there. The officer is said to have put him off. It is reported that Leusby told the officer that if he waited until Sunday he could take the coroner with him.

Rose Vain met McCain at Herrington, a portion of her family lives here while others live in Topeka, Kan.

Leusby, or McLain, is about 35 years of age and was Mrs. Leusby's second husband. They had no children. Woods was about 25 and unmarried. He was employed in a grocery store. Leusby is in jail.

OIL SITUATION DEPLORABLE.

J. A. Kirkwood, the Special Agent of Governor, So Reports.

Tulsa, Okla., July 20.—General J. A. Kirkwood, special agent appointed by Governor Haskell to investigate conditions in the Oklahoma oil fields, has completed his work and will at once lay an extensive report before the governor. General Kirkwood stated that he found conditions as represented by the oil men. He said the oil industry is in a deplorable condition.

He is convinced that additional pipe lines are absolutely necessary for the prosperity of the oil field and says people outside the oil belt have no conception of the true condition of affairs here.

SPENT MOST IN INVESTIGATING.

Return Balance to the State—Cyclone Sufferers Get Nothing.

Guthrie, Okla., July 20.—During the storm period last spring the legislature appropriated $10,000 for the relief of cyclone sufferers in Dewey, Ellis, Alfalfa, Major, Woodward and Stephens Counties, and gave the distribution of the money to the board of agriculture. President Conners announced today that the board would pay out none of the money, but would return it to the state.

President Conners said today: "Crop conditions are better in five of those counties than in the Choctaw, Chickasaw or Creek nations. Half the counties suffered damage from floods, wind and hail since the appropriation was made, and it would be an injustice to compel citizens of those counties to reimburse the state treasury for this appropriation."

About $6,300 of the fund was spent in making investigations.

MAN FOUND DEAD NEAR ADA

Body In Bad Condition Indicating Death Several Days Ago.

On Monday, about the noon hour, J. D. Moore discovered a dead man in a vacant house joining the Frisco right of way near Oakman, six miles northeast of Ada. Justice of the Peace Hammond was notified and a jury was summoned which returned a verdict that deceased had met death in a manner unknown.

The dead man appeared to have been about 60 years of age, six feet tall, gray hair and moustache and possessed a perfect set of teeth except the absence of one lower tooth. By his side was a universal water bottle, a tin cup and a box of morphine tablets.

On July 9th, this same man came to the home of F. A. Haleman, who lives at Oakman, where he spent the night. He gave his name and said his home was in Missouri and that he was in this country prospecting. Mr. Haleman cannot remember his name, but says he was very dear.

O. C. Johnston, who lives at Oakman, and who was in Ada today making inquiry concerning the man, says that he had seen this man on the streets at Ada and had talked to him. He also saw him on the afternoon of the ninth. There was nothing about his person which would lead toward his identity. He possessed a silverine watch, and wore first-class clothes. One of the little girls at the Haleman house says he displayed a large money purse when he paid for his lodging, but there was no trace of such on or about his remains. He remarked during his stay at Haleman's that the native water did not agree with him and on that account he was compelled to drink mineral water. The people of Oakman and vicinity gave him a respectable burial.

The Way of the Rothschilds.

A New Orleans man said the other day of the great house of the Rothschilds:

"The Rothschilds push their strictness to the point of eccentricity. They once had for agent here in New Orleans a fine fellow. They telegraphed to this agent at a certain season to sell their cotton holdings, but he knew the price would go higher, and therefore he didn't sell until four days later. In consequence he netted an extra profit of $40,000 for his firm."

"When he sent the Rothschilds the money and told them joyously what he had done they returned the whole amount, with a cold note that said

"The $40,000 you made by disobeying our instructions is not ours, but yours. Take it, Mr. Blank, your successor, sail for New Orleans today!"—New Orleans Picayune.

About $6,300 of the fund was spent in making investigations.

ANTS CAUSE CHILD'S DEATH.

Mother Left It to Hunt a Cow and Found It in Nest on Her Return.

Anadarko, Okla., July 20.—Red ants crawling into the eyes, ears, nose and mouth of the little three-year-old daughter of Tonic, a Kiowa Indian living near here inflicted wounds from which the child died later.

The child's mother had gone to drive up the cow and left her alone. She crawled into the nest, and the ants attacked her. She was attacked by convulsions later in the night and died.

ADVERTISING TALK.

Newspaper advertising is to business what hands are to a clock. It is a direct and certain means of letting the public know what you are doing. In these days of intense and vigilant commercial contest a dealer who does not advertise is like a clock that has no hands. He has no way of telling folks what he's got. He can no more expect a twentieth century success with nineteenth century methods than he can wear the same sized shoes a man which fitted in his boyhood.

His father and mother were content with neighborhood shops and bobby cars. They were the best to be had in their day. They were accustomed to seek the merchant instead of being sought by him. They dealt "around the corner" in one story shops which depended upon the immediate friends of the dealer for support. As long as the city was made up of such neighborhood units, each with a full outfit of butchers, bakers, clothiers, jewelers, furniture dealers and shoemakers it was possible for the proprietors of these little establishments to exist and make a profit.

But as population increased, transit facilities spread, sections became specialized, block after block was entirely devoted to stores, and mile after mile became solely occupied by homes.

The purchaser and the storekeeper grew farther and apart. It was necessary for the merchant to find a substitute for his direct personality which no longer served to draw customers to his door. He had to stretch a bond between the commercial center and the home center.

Rapid transit eliminated distance, but advertising was necessary to inform people where he was located and what he had to sell. It was natural outgrowth of changed conditions—the beginning of a new era in trade which no longer relied upon personal acquaintance for success.

The newspaper publisher, hitherto a gossip, a retailer of information, became a first aid to commercial advancement. The shopkeeper, hitherto a petty tradesman, began to grow into the dignity of a merchant.

Something more wonderful than the fabled philosopher's stone came into being and the beginnings of fortunes which would pass the hundred million mark and place tradesmen's daughters upon oriental thrones grew from this new force.

Within fifty years it has become as vital to industry as steam to commerce.

Advertising is not a luxury nor a debatable policy. It has proven its case, its record is traced in the sky-line of the city where a hundred towering buildings stand as a lesson of reproach to the men who had the opportunity but not the foresight, and furnish a constant inspiration to the young merchant at the threshold of his career.—Exchange.
